A Dream that Would Change the World

We have a dream. A dream that, embraced and acted on, could change everything for the better on Earth in one generation.

A dream you may wish to dream with us:

- * We have a dream. A dream of a world where we hold this truths to be self-evident: that We are all One. That all things are One Thing. That there is only One Thing, and all things are part of the One Thing There Is. That we are Divine. That we are not our body, our mind, or our soul. That we are the combination of all three, comprising the Totality Of Us. We have a dream of a world where we live as an expression of Divinity on Earth.
- * We have a dream. That there's enough, and we know it and live as if it is so. That we live as if it is not necessary to compete for, much less fight over, our resources. Knowing all we have to do is share.
- * We have a dream. A dream that there's nothing we have to do. That there is much we can and will do, but nothing we are required to do. A dream that our God is a loving God who needs nothing, demands nothing, commands nothing, and punishes nothing.
- * We have a dream. A dream of a world where God talks to everyone, all the time. That we don't ask: To whom does God talk? But that we all listen.
- * We have a dream. A wonderful dream that there is no such thing as absolute Right and Wrong, that there is only What Works and What Does Not Work, given what it is each of us are trying to do. That we embrace the challenge of humanity, to agree on what it is we are trying to do, individually and as a species, and where we rise to the occasion.
- * We have a dream. A dream that we accept Life's most spectacular invitation, to change human consciousness from a Victim-Villain mentality and a Mine-Yours mentality to a Win-Win/Ours-Ours mentality, and live according to it. A dream that we finally understand our true relationship to each other and to God.
- * We have a dream. A dream that we know no one does anything inappropriate, given their model of the world. And that, through this powerful insight, we at last identify the solution to ending humanity's cruel and self-destructive behaviors: Change the beliefs that form people's idea of the world and hatred, anger and violence will disappear.
- * We have a dream. A dream that we know there is no such place as hell, and eternal damnation does not exist.
- * We have a dream. A dream that we know death does not exist. That we know that what we used to call "death" is merely a process of Re-Identification.
- * We have a dream. A dream of a wonderful world where Love is all there is, and we know it and live that way.
- * We have a dream. That we know each of us is the creator of our own individual and collective reality, using the Three Tools of Creation: Thought, Word, and Action.
- * We have a dream. That we know our life has nothing to do with us. That we know it is about everyone whose life we touch, and the way in which we touch it.
- * We have a dream. That we all know that the purpose of our lives is to recreate ourselves anew in the next grandest version of the greatest vision ever we held about Who We Are.
- * We have a dream. That we understand that the moment we declare anything, everything unlike it will come into the space. This is The Law of Opposites, producing a Contextual Field within which that which we wish to express may be experienced. We have a dream that this understanding allows us to respond positively to life's most challenging events.
- * We have a dream. That we understand all truth is subjective. And that within this framework we understand there are five levels of truth telling. Tell your truth to yourself about yourself. Tell your truth to yourself about another. Tell your truth about yourself to another. Tell your truth about another that another. Tell your truth to everyone about everything.
- * We have a dream. That we understand and learn how to use the Ten Illusions of Humans which are: Need Exists, Failure Exists, Disunity Exists, Insufficiency Exists, Requirement Exists, Judgment Exists, Condemnation Exists, Conditionality Exists, Superiority Exists, Ignorance Exists.

- * We have a dream. That we banish the struggle from our lives by living according to the Three Core Concepts of Holistic Living: Honesty, Awareness, Responsibility.
- * We have a dream. That we all experience mastery in living by understanding that life functions within a Be-Do-Have paradigm, instead of having it backwards, imagining that first we must "have" things in order to "do" things, thus to "be" what we wish to be.
- * We have a dream. That we produce our own inner peace by understanding that there are Three Levels of Awareness: Hope, Faith, and Knowing, and by living from the third level.
- * We have a dream. That our children live in a world where we have ended crisis, violence, killing and war by, finally, understanding and expelling from our belief systems the Five Fallacies about God that created them. Those fallacies are, first, the idea that God needs something. Second, the idea that God can fail to get what God needs. Third, the idea that God has separated us from God because we have not given God what God needs. Fourth, the idea that God still needs what God needs so badly that God now requires us, from our separated position, to give it to God. Fifth, the idea that God will destroy us if we do not meet God's requirements.
- * We have a dream. That we also have banished from our belief systems the Five Fallacies About Life that likewise create crisis, violence, killing and war. Those fallacies are, first, the idea that we are separate from each other. Second, the idea that there is not enough of what we need to be happy. Third, the idea that in order to get the stuff of which there is not enough, we must compete with each other. Fourth, the idea that some human beings are better than other human beings. Fifth, the idea that it is appropriate for us to resolve severe differences created by all the other fallacies by fighting and killing each other.
- * We have a dream. That we realize we are not being terrorized by other people, as we think right now, but in truth we are being terrorized by our beliefs. That we shift our experience of ourselves and our world dramatically by adopting the Five Steps to Peace:
- (1) Permitting ourselves to acknowledge that some of our old beliefs about God and about Life are no longer working.
- (2) Exploring the possibility that there is something we do not fully understand about God and about Life, the understanding of which would change everything.
- (3) Announcing that we are willing for new understandings of God and Life to now be brought forth, understandings that could produce a new way of life on this planet.
- (4) Courageously examining these new understandings and, as they align with our personal inner truth and knowing, enlarging our belief system to include them.
- (5) Expressing our life as a demonstration of our highest beliefs, rather than as a denial of them.

We know this dream will come true as we take this Five Steps to Peace.

* We have a dream. And we live this dream letting freedom ring in a New Gospel that could heal all the anger on Earth: We are all one. Ours is not a better way, a better dream, ours is merely another way, another dream.

Imagine this dream coming true. Would you join us? Would you help this world live as one? Let freedom ring!

This document has been lovingly placed here by a member of Humanity's Team as part of its spiritual activism program, titled The Evolution Revolution. The words are a summation of the messages in the Conversations with God series of books, which form the spiritual basis of the global work of Humanity's Team. You are being invited by life to join with thousands around the world in forging that evolution revolution right now. The moment is calling to all of humanity. We cannot continue the way in which we are going. You may not agree with every one of the statements above, but can you agree that we at least need to start a new discussion, with some revolutionary ideas, about how to end humanity's global dysfunction? Or do you believe we can move forward with ideas about God and about Life from the past?
