

MORE THAN AN INTERNSHIP... A LIFE EXPERIENCE!

Provides undergraduate and graduate university students with the opportunity to learn about development work and corporate management at the IDB, working directly with teams coordinating development projects or with teams in our corporate and/or strategic units.

DURATION 2 MONTHS

PAID

IN WASHINGTON DC

General Requirements

Citizen of an IDB member country

No relatives currently working at the Bank

Special requirements apply for candidates who self-identify as Afro-descendents or Indigenous.

25

Years old or younger or undergraduate students

0

Years of work experience

27

Years old or younger for undergraduate students

31

Years old or younger for graduate students

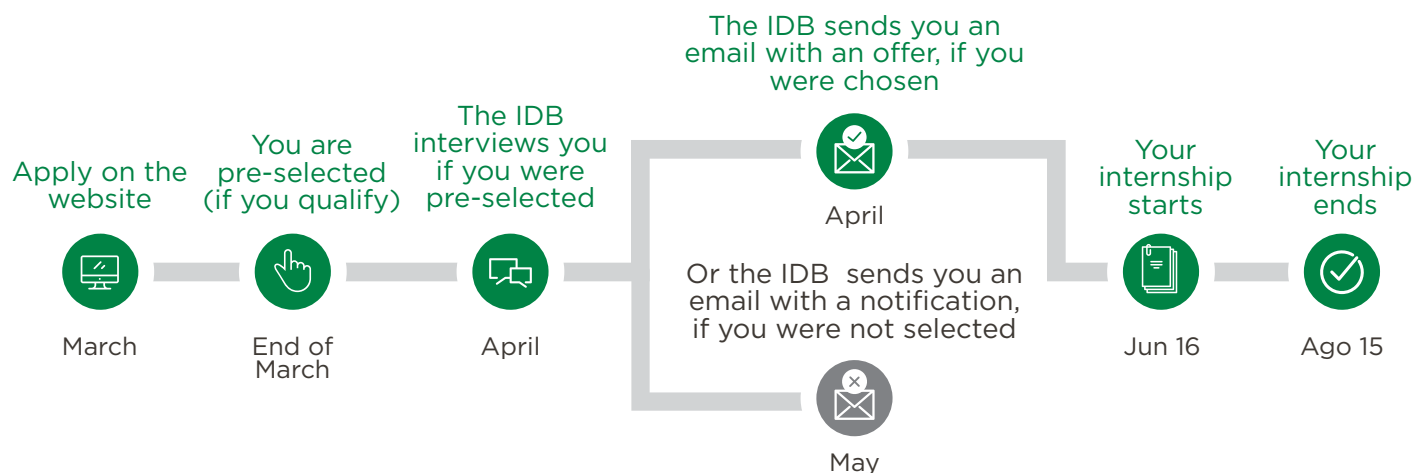

1 IDB Official Language*

33

Years old or younger for graduate students

* IDB Official Languages: English, Spanish, French and Portuguese.

How does the competitive process work?

CORPORATE SUPPORT

- 1 Accounting and Budget
- 2 Communications
- 3 Corporate Services
- 4 Fiduciary
- 5 Human Resources Management
- 6 Information Technology
- 7 Learning & Knowledge
- 8 Legal
- 9 Oversight, Audit & Compliance
- 10 Resource Planning & Administration
- 11 Treasury & Risk

OPERATIONS FOR DEVELOPMENT

- 1 Climate Change
- 2 Competitiveness, Technology and Innovation
- 3 Connectivity, Markets and Finance
- 4 Education
- 5 Energy
- 6 Environment, Rural Development & Disaster Risk
- 7 Fiscal Management
- 8 Gender & Diversity
- 9 Housing & Urban Development
- 10 Innovation in Citizen Services
- 11 Operations Finance Mngt & Procurement Services
- 12 Private Sector and SME Development
- 13 Research
- 14 Social Protection & Health
- 15 Trade & Investment
- 16 Transport
- 17 Water and Sanitation

Visit our website to see other employment opportunities available in any of our 26 offices in Latin America and the Caribbean, our headquarters in Washington, DC, USA or our offices in Asia and Europe.

