

Four American Women in Honor of Women's History Month

Sacagawea was a Shoshone Indian guide.
She explored the Louisiana Territory with Lewis and Clark.

Susan B. Anthony fought for women's rights
She was arrested for trying to vote.
After she died, women got the right to vote.

Rosa Parks refused to give her bus seat to a white passenger. She was arrested.
People call her The First Lady of Civil Rights.

Dolores Huerta is a labor union leader.
She has led many protests and was arrested.
She won the 2012 Presidential Medal of Freedom.